

Please do not weaken Wisconsin's No-call List-consumer protection program. The program has been working extremely well. I am fully capable of finding vendors to fit my needs. There is no benefit to me allowing companies to disrupt my home, uninvited, in order to attempt to fulfill their needs. There are numerous and effective alternatives for these companies to utilize.

Sincerely,

Matt Staeben